

POSTDOCTORAL FELLOWSHIP

REHABILITATION SCIENCE

A 2-year postdoctoral fellowship with the RESTORE Team within the CU Physical Therapy program in Denver. This fellowship provides potential experiences and training in the following project and methodological areas:

AGING AND MOBILITY RESEARCH

Potential Project Areas:

PREDICTIVE ANALYTICS	FALL PREVENTION	TELEREHABILITATION
WALKING SPEED	IMAGING/MRI (OSTEOARTHRITIS)	POWER TRAINING

Methodological Areas:

IMPLEMENTATION SCIENCE	CLINICAL TRIALS	IMAGING ANALYSIS
MIXED METHODS RESEARCH	TEAM SCIENCE	QUANTITATIVE METHODS

CANDIDATE CRITERIA

Ideal candidates will be highly motivated clinician scientists with an academic doctoral degree (PhD, EdD, DSc). Candidates nearing the completion of their academic doctorate are encouraged to apply. Candidates with a clinical doctorate (DPT) and geriatric clinical specialization (GCS) will also be considered.

This fellowship is available to start summer or fall 2027 later options may be discussed) with mentorship by Dr. Stevens-Lapsley. Training is closely associated with the CU Rehabilitation Science PhD.

SUBMISSION DEADLINE JANUARY 15, 2027 - APPLICATIONS RECIEVED AFTER THIS DATE WILL BE CONSIDERED THROUGH MARCH 15, 2027, IF POSITIONS ARE AVAILABLE

For more information, email jennifer.stevens-lapsley@cuanschutz.edu

RESTORE Team

